

Privacy Policy

Mirage Executive Charters VA, (“MECva”) is an online service that allows the public to fly in a virtual flying club and that allows its members to set up personal profiles, chat with each other through a TeamSpeak server and participate in forums. MECva members can view each others’ profiles and post messages on the forums.

MECva does not sell personal information about its members to any third party, including but not limited to, e-mail addresses and names.

MECva will not share any individual personal information with third parties except as required by law.

MECva collects user submitted information such as name, email address, and age to verify users and to provide basic information to other users. Members may provide additional information at their discretion such as media interests and personal biographies. Additional information is not required for membership to MECva. Any personal information entered into a MECva profile aside from e-mail address, password should be considered viewable by the general public. This information may be used by third parties outside of MECva’s control. Members may remove their information from the system at any time and MECva will not keep a member’s information for any longer than is necessary to provide its services.

MECva logs IP addresses of visiting users for statistical purposes and to maintain the integrity and security of our online gaming features and forums. IP’s are not shared with any third party.

From time to time, MECva may provide demographic and statistical information to other parties outside of MECva purposes of securing and/or for general promotion of the website. This disclosure will not share any personal information of individual users but is intended to give a broad overview of MECva’s membership.

MECva uses cookies to store login information and to record settings to a user’s local computer. This stored data does not attempt to “mine” any other information from a user’s system or to collect information on sites outside the MECva family of websites.

MECva takes great care to protect its users’ personal information but cannot unconditionally guarantee the security of its database from outside attack or compromise.

MECva allows members to post URL’s that may take users to other websites. MECva can make no guarantees as to the Privacy Policies of these sites.

MECva will update this Privacy Policy from time to time and alert users of the changes via the MECva online forum or a post on its web site. It is the responsibility of the user to be aware of the current policy.
